"Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that."

-Martin Luther King, Jr.

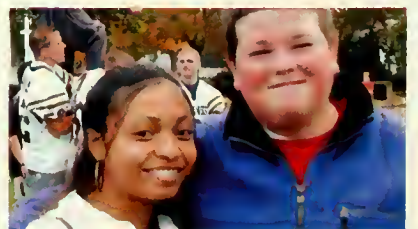

Over the past 18 years, the halls of East Bridgewater High School have been filled with the light and the love of many people. Foremost in this group has been our former Principal, George F. Kelly, Jr. With passion and enthusiasm he has poured his heart and soul into this building and this community. As a representative of the school body, I would like to extend our most heartfelt thanks to Mr. Kelly for all his hard work and dedication in his tenure here. He has been the guiding light in our education. He has touched our lives in the way that very few can.

As we mature, we make wrong decisions, form bad habits & r judged. You say live life w/out regrets? Thats impossible. None of us r perfect. The important thing is that as we grow we take in as mUch as we can, have fun, live, love, laugh, & learn. Don't b concerned w/ ur reputation bc its some1 else's opinion. Adieu...

“Ms. Lovett has enlightened and educated the students of EBHS for years about other languages and cultures. She is active within the student body and interacts with the students on a personal level as well as an educator.”

-Kaitlyn Smalley

Patricia Lovett has taught at East Bridgewater High School since 1982. She is the advisor for SADD/Amnesty and the Class of 2005

“Mr. Young has been a dedicated member of the East Bridgewater teaching staff. Through his tireless efforts and passion for science, he has helped prepare generations of our youth for the future.”

-Pete Smith

John Young has taught at East Bridgewater since 1967. He has been selected as the Massachusetts Science Educator of the Year for Plymouth County for 2004

“Some know him as a coach, others as a teacher, a husband, a father, or a grandfather. No matter what the case, Mr. McCabe has always been there for all of us. Now, after 35 years of passing on his knowledge to young minds, Mr. McCabe is retiring and beginning the next chapter of his life. Over the years, George McCabe has been a great teacher, co-worker, friend and hall of fame worthy coach. He is one of the most well-liked and respected persons in East Bridgewater. Although we are sad to see him go, we are proud to know him and excited for him as he takes advantage of the opportunities that await him.”

-Chris Donovan & Shannon Dednah

George McCabe is the heart and soul of East Bridgewater High School.

The Senior Lunch Table

To my lovely staff:

I imagine in the past, this is one of the last pages completed for the yearbook, but because of our rather dismal luck and poor planning, it is instead one of our first. It's possible we will all hate each other by May, but for now I can only say that it has been a grand old time putting this beast of a thing together and watching it shuffle off on wobbly legs into the world.

Craig, I would like to thank you for never answering a question directly and for always being sarcastic.

Tom, the yearbook wouldn't be the same without your spirit or your pretty boy looks.

Brenna, thank you for all your hard work, your dedication and for making sure there were always pieces of paper with your name written on them all over my office.

I couldn't say enough nice things about Shannon, if I tried. Suffice it to say that we only have a yearbook in large part because of you. I would also like to thank Sonia Grossman for all her help getting things off the ground.

Best of luck to all the seniors on our staff, especially Bourne and Smalls and Nicole.

I've been lucky to have a huge number of great kids working on this book. The good ones know who they are; the bad ones know where I work.

And to you, gentle reader, we hope you enjoy our efforts on your behalf. We're really working hard to give you the best yearbook we can. If we've failed, please blame the good people at Herff-Jones.

Sincerely,

Mr. Tressel, advisor

"Many look with admiration at people who have a certain finesse, but rarely think of the dedication it took to achieve that shining grace."

Kaitlin,

I close my eyes and see this adorable little ball of energy, running, jumping, tumbling, and singing. You were always a self-assured and happy-go-lucky little girl. Performing with the biggest smile, your spirit for life was infectious. You always wanted to be the best you could be no matter how difficult the task. There were many challenges along the way, but your determination, relentlessness, and pure will helped you to achieve your goals. We are so proud of your accomplishments in the classroom, on the mat, over the hurdles and in every day life. Remember to cherish your years in high school--these will be memories you will hold close to your heart; all the laughter, tears, troubles, triumphs and banners. You are a beautiful, talented and confident young woman. We hope you find the success, love and happiness you deserve. "Remember you will always be our little Katie Bubbles."

We love you. Mom, Dad, Karissa, and Kylene.

Dear Vicki,
 It's finally here! Graduation is just around the corner. I know how excited you are. We are all excited, too! We want you to know how proud we are of you. Your hard work and determination have paid off. Your "never-give-up" attitude is an inspiration to all of us. You have grown into a beautiful young woman, both inside and out. You have so many wonderful qualities to share with the world. You are a gentle, kind, caring and respectful human being. You have a beautiful smile that can brighten anyone's day, and your concern for others is sincere. You have learned many lessons through your high school years. But you have taught much too. We have learned from you what courage really is. You get up and go out into the world every day and give your best effort. Sometimes life throws you a curve but you just keep forging ahead. How lucky we are that God sent you to us! You're the best daughter, sister, granddaughter, cousin and friend anyone could have. On graduation day Grandman Anne, Grandpa Moe and Grandpa Joe will have the best seats in the house! They'll be smiling down on you! We all love you!
 Mom, Dad, Jen, Brigid, & Grandma Jewel, Nala and Gladys, too!)

Max-

Candace. Our darling little Kiki girl. We are so proud of you and the choices you have made. Your kind, nurturing and compassionate qualities will allow you to follow your dreams. With your positive attitude and determination your goals will allow you to follow your dreams. With your positive attitude and determination your goals will be achieved. The inner strength you possess has helped you overcome the pain and adversity through these past few years. The pain you endure on a daily basis is inconceivable, yet you carry on in silence with a smile. No cast, no splint no sling. When you have a back injury no one can see, they think it is not there. You walk down the halls and in the malls in a brace under your clothes no one can see. You dance and cheer in quiet agony no one can hear. You have always been a very strong and private person. You never complain, you never did. You are no ordinary girl. You prove daily that you are truly extraordinary. So Candace, as you travel on your journey and on to your destiny, continue to be that person with a unique way of bringing out the best in everyone around you. Your quick wit and bright smile are so refreshing; you light up the room when you enter. Kiki little bones you are and always will be "little in the middle." And remember I am always smiling at you.

We love you.

Mom. Dad. Sarah. Jenay
